

From the General Manager

Spring has most definitely sprung and it is a perfect time to get out and about.

We know it can be challenging at times to book onto our outings. To help with this we have upsized our outings calendar for the next couple of months and put on a few new and additional outings. Hopefully there is something in there for most tastes. Remember, if you do find an event booked out, please put yourself down on the waitlist as we often run additional buses and subsequent events for those who have expressed an interest.

A couple to watch out for in the coming months. Thanks to support from the Forestville RSL we are putting on another morning tea event to learn about the Indigenous history of the Northern Beaches with 5th generation Aboriginal, Neil Evers. The even more exciting part of this is that we are able to offer this event for free to those eligible for Commonwealth Home Support Program or Community Transport Program subsidies. We are also delighted to have received further funding from the Manly Leagues Club to bring back our very popular Easylink to Wellness program. For only $25 for subsidised participants, you can enjoy a coffee at Manly Leagues club, a wellness class at Active Seniors and return transport to and from your home.

Please also keep in mind that in addition to a bustling social program, we do have a fleet of cars and vans that can help you get to appointments and keep in touch with family and friends. Our wonderful drivers can pick you up from your home and take you anywhere on the Northern Beaches between 7am and 7pm. The transport is heavily subsidised which does make it a very cost-effective way to get around.

Hope to see you out enjoying the sunshine soon.
